1. The Deutsche Kugellagerfabrik Böhlitz-Ehrenberg fabricated 461,750 bearings in the month of August 1953. About the end of the month a new order was received for 16,000 heavy bearings, to be finished by 2 Sep 53.
 2. The works manufactures thrust bearings, spherical roller bearings, ball bearings and conical bearings for German requirements and for export to Poland and China. For the Soviet Union, rocker bearings almost exclusively are manufactured; 84,220 were produced in August. The pins for these Soviet bearings are made of [redacted] steel delivered through Poland.
